- b. A ticket or pass received by an Eastvale Official where the official treats the ticket or pass as income inconsistent with the applicable state and federal income tax laws and the ticket is reported in accordance with the FPPC Regulations; or
- c. A ticket or pass for which the Eastvale Official reimburses the City for the face value of the ticket.
- d. A free pass or discounted travel from transportation companies.¹

General Provisions

1. No Right to Tickets: The use of complementary tickets is a privilege extended by the City and not the right of any person to which the privilege may from time to time be extended.
2. Limitation on Transfer of Tickets: Tickets distributed to an Eastvale Official pursuant to this Policy shall not be transferred to any other person, except to members of such official's immediate family (i.e., spouse and dependent children) or no more than one guest solely for their attendance at the event.
3. Prohibition Against Sales of or Receiving Reimbursement for Tickets: No person who receives a ticket pursuant to this Policy shall sell or receive reimbursement for the value of the ticket.
4. Implementation of Policy: The City Manager or her designee shall have the authority, in her sole discretion, to distribute tickets or passes in accordance with this Policy and to establish related procedures.
5. No Earmarking of Ticket: No ticket or pass gratuitously provided to the City by an outside source and distributed pursuant to this Policy shall be earmarked by the original source for us by a particular Eastvale Official.

Ticket Distribution Must Accomplish Public Purpose

1. The distribution of the tickets or passes to, or at the behest of, an Eastvale Official must accomplish a governmental and/or public purpose. The following list of government and/or public purposes the City may accomplish through the distribution of tickets is illustrative rather than exhaustive:
 - a. Facilitating public recognition, support, or award-giving on behalf of the City at an event.

¹ See Cal. Const. art. XII, § 7 (“A transportation company may not grant free passes or discounts to anyone holding an office in this state . . .”)
